

Never has so many ambassadors been gathered in Oslo Town Hall as on Friday 24th April 1987. And that is thanks to the Fjord horse. Said the Mair of Oslo, Albert Nordengen, on the picture together with Grethe Waitz, when he wished welcome to the Fjord Horse meeting in the Town Hall gallery.

(Foto: Johan Berge, NORTRA).

5637 ØLVE

Den norske fjordingen er i ferd med å legge verden for sine hofter. Den norske Fjordingstiftelsen markerte fredag 24.04.1987 fjordingens suksess som eksport-artikkel ved å overrekke en rekke lands ambassadører et litografi av en fjording. Bildet viser tv. den påtroppende sovjetiske ambassadør Kommissarov og den USA's ambassadør Robert D. Stuart rundt hovedpersonen i (ntb-foto Sigurdson)

The Norwegian fjord horse is about to place the world before his feet.

The Norwegian Fjordingstiftelsen (foundation) marked on Friday the 24th April 1987 the fjord horse success as an export article by giving several countries ambassadors a lithography of a fjord horse.

The picture shows from left the new ambassador from Soviet Union, Kommissarov and the USA's ambassador Robert D. Stuart on each side of the main object the fjord horse. (ntb-foto Sigurdson)

